Debaters Sweep Field; Take Three Places

Leading BYU debaters claimed their most significant victory of the year Saturday, as they won first, second and third places in various events at the annual Deseret National held in Tucson, Arizona.

According to Prof. Ted R. Johnson, debate coach, the sweepstakes were won by the team from YMMIA . . .

Buehner To Speak

Bishop Carl W. Buehner, second assistant superintendent in YMMIA general superintendency will be Tuesday's Devotional speaker.

Prominent in Church and business circles, Bishop Buehner attended Salt Lake City schools and attended high school, where he was a member of the National Honor Society.

Church jurisdictions he has held include bishop of Forest Dale Ward, a high councilman in the Granite Stake, Granite Stake President, member of the Church's General Welfare Committee, and second counselor to Bishop Joseph W. Wirthlin in the Presiding Bishopric of the Church.

He also filled a two-year mission in the Eastern States. Bishop Buehner was appointed to the YMMIA position in the fall of 1961, after serving nine years as the Presiding Bishopric.

A successful businessman, he's presently chairman of the board, First Bank Co. and the Mineral Fertilizer Co. president, Utah Farms Inc. Forest (Holding) Co. and Beehive State Bank.

He is also president of the Utah Farm Products Co.; vice president, Utah Buehner Co.; and secretary, Sunset Lawn Mower Corp.

High Contests Coming Up . . .

Bells Get The Word On Week

This year's Bells of the Y sat in an audience of nervous girls Saturday to hear the week's contest schedule and advice from last year's winners.

One hundred and sixteen applications were turned in; 75 girls came to the orientation meeting. IC chairman Doug Hansen estimates that 90 girls will start the contest.

A make-up meeting will be held Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. in 321 Y Center for candidates unable to come to the Saturday meeting, he said.

Contests start Tuesday with Beauty, Sex and Personality, but no cut made. After the field will be narrowed to 75 for the Craft Contest Thursday and narrowed again to 30 after the Cake-Baking contest Saturday.

The Dance Contest March 8 will eliminate candidates but the number of contestants will be cut to 15 after the Culture Contest team with the best six over-all record during the past several years of Deseret Invitational competition.

The BYU teams faced rugged competition from 42 teams representing leading universities in the West, Mid-West, Pacific, and Pacific Western areas of the country.

In the JUNIOR division, first year speech majors, Judy Wolff and Jon Rowberry, won first place. The two were undefeated in tournament competition, Coach Richardson said.

Steve Davis and Don Black finished second in the senior division. NOT FAR BEHIND, Ruth Thompson, Claudia Smith, placed third in the women's division.

Coach Richardson also reported that Miss Smith finished in the final rounds of extemporaneous competition and Rowberry was third in the oratory contest.

Machine Man Will Speak To Engineers

George B. Hill will be guest speaker at the Engineer's Annual Award Banquet Monday at 7 p.m. at 335 Y Center.

AT THE BANQUET awards will be presented for the best design of engineering work, and to the outstanding engineer of the year.

Hill, brother of BYU's Armistead Hill, Dean of the School of Physical and Engineering Sciences, is responsible for the invention of the wire-tie hay baler.

THE NOTED mechanical engineer's numerous inventions include designs of hay processing grain harvesting and automatic cotton picking machines.

This Riverdale, Ala., youth's engineering prowess of 30 years throughout industrial centers in the east has placed his name in five separate volumes of Who's Who.

PRESENTLY HE is assistant to the president of Emco Corporation in Salt Lake. Here he is director and coordinator of all Emco's manufacturing activities and engineering as relates to manufacturing.

Hill presided over the Eastern States Mission from 1960 to 1963.

Descendant Donates Mementos

Several mementos of the life of Karl G. Maeser, early president of Brigham Young Academy, now BYU have been given to BYU by Mrs. Eva Maeser Crandall last living child of Dr. Maeser.

Included in the gift are two certificates, several pictures and a manuscript of a pageant written by Mrs. Crandall.

One of the certificates, dated 1870, proclaims Dr. Maeser as an honorary member of the Trade Club of Meissen, Germany. Meissen was the educator's birthplace and he also served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The certificate was presented to Dr. Maeser when he delivered two lectures before the group on the "Country of the Great Salt Lake and its People."

An appointment of Dr. Maeser in 1897 by Utah Gov. Heber M. Wells to serve on a commission to locate a branch of the State Normal School was the occasion of the second certificate.

The life of Martha Smith Harris, daughter of Hyrum Smith, is the subject of the pageant manuscript written by Mrs. Crandall. The pageant was presented at BYU in 1949.

Nine Music Performers To Bring In Bach Aria

The BACH Aria Group, who has performed for sold-out concert tours throughout the United States, South America, Canada, and Europe, will be heard in concert Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

SPONSORED BY THE BYU Community Concert Association, the admission is by BYU activity card or Community Concert membership card. Others may purchase tickets at the door for $2.50.

Presenting "music without equal or any near parallel," as described by Paul Hume of the Washington Post, the group is directed by William H. Schelde.

THE BACH ARIA group combines the talents of nine world-famous instrumental and vocal soloists including flutist Julius Baker, oboist Robert Bloom, soprano Eileen Farrell, bass-baritone Norman Farrow, cellist Bernard Greenhouse, tenor Jan Peerce, violinist Oscar Shumsky, alto Carol Smith and pianist Paul Ulanovsky.

Besides doing the research and programming for all of the concerts Director Schelde also prepares the translations of the German text which appear on the program.

FOR ITS PERFORMANCE of Bach's comparatively unknown but melodic arias and choruses in the International Pablo Casals Festival, the group was cited by Time Magazine as "the hit of the Festival."

Since it was first organized in 1946 the ensemble collects accolades from critics and audiences alike everywhere it appears.

U. S. Program . . .

AF Team Sets Take On Space

A professional Aerospace presentation team from the Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala., will visit BYU Tuesday as guests of the YU Air Force Detachment.

THE NATIONALLY known team will give a 75 minute presentation covering the significant aspects of U.S. space activities at 3 p.m. in the Y Center theater and at 8 p.m. in the Provo High School Auditorium.

All BYU students are invited.

ACTING AS TEAM Chief, Lt. Colonel Richard B. Olney, a former professor of Aerospace Studies, is responsible for the team's accuracy, timeliness and concise presentation of information about the nation's space program to many millions of people each year.

To help assure accuracy and currency of their material, the team members have visited military and civilian space organizations and have become familiar with the latest developments in the space program.

THEY ALSO OBTAINED from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and space industry sources the latest color slides and film strips available.

After conversations with scientists, engineers, and astronauts, the team incorporated the new information into their aerospace presentation.

THE TEAM HAS received the Hoyt S. Vandenberg Trophy for "distinguished service to the nation in the field of aerospace education."

In great demand throughout the country, in January of 1964 alone, military and civilian groups in 45 states asked to be included in their presentation schedules during 1964-65, according to William Daniels of the BYU AFROTC.

Stop Eating, 'Courtin' In Y Gallery

The Harris Fine Arts Center, gallery must not be used as a lounge, study hall, lunch room, or courtin' parlor according to Warren Wilson, publicity chairman for the Art Department.

PROF. WILSON stressed the desire of the gallery to maintain "the unique and dignified function of the art gallery."

"The art gallery in the central hall of the Harris Fine Arts Center represents a cultural step forward at BYU."

KNOW, FOR the first time, great works of art can be housed and exhibited in a place designed" said Prof. Wilson.

Considered to be one of the great art collections in the West, the BYU collection now numbers more than 5000 pieces which are valued in the millions of dollars," he said.
